IN MOURNING FOR THE COUNTY ACT AT HILO

Sheriff Andrews First Thought It Was a Hoax.
Hilo Enjoys Some Fashionable Weddings.

HILO, Jan. 15.—The Hilo Herald publishes the following in a black border: The following message was received by wireless at the Herald office at 3:30 yesterday afternoon:

"Supreme Court unanimously killed County Act."

In the opinion of W. S. Wise, the attorney, Judge Hapai and others, this action by the Supreme Court means that the old officials will hold over until the legislature in an extra session can enact another bill.

It has been intimated by attorneys in Honolulu that the wording of the Organic Act in respect to county government has been given an erroneous meaning by the authorities here, that the county government shall be one whose officials shall be selected by the governor. Such a construction would not be accepted by people away from the capital where the wish is father to the thought. Until the full decision of the court is received the public will withhold judgment.

In the meantime the Territorial officials are the only ones with authority to act. There is no appropriation for sheriff or any other official acting under the old law, which, by the way, is the only law to be recognized. There is no appropriation for the judiciary and unless prompt action is taken there will be no money for jurors or witnesses or any other of the many expenses incidental to a court term. Until Keolanui be commissioned by the Governor to act as sheriff or Sheriff Andrews resumes the reins of office by virtue of his commission which, it is said, reads "until his successor be appointed," the prisoners in the jail are held by some person unauthorized by law to act. There is not a policeman in the county with legal authority to arrest anyone. Marriage licenses granted by the tax collector are questionable in status, but the ceremony performed by a minister of the gospel stands pat.

It is possible that matters may be straightened out temporarily by the Governor, the wireless bringing advice today. On the other hand in anticipation of the decision affairs may be in such shape in Honolulu that a special steamer will be sent with commissions for the officials.

Sheriff Andrews, when seen in the evening, said that he had received no advice on the matter and thought possibly the dispatch might be a hoax. None of the county officials have heard anything further, no other dispatch than the one to the Herald having been received. Andrews was in consultation with Keolanui and J. U. Smith in the afternoon. He told them that if the county bill had been killed as reported he was ready to take over the prisoners when it was the pleasure of Keolanui to turn them over. He suggested, however, that he take advice from J. U. Smith and such other attorneys as he pleased to consult.

METCALF-PECK.
At noon today J. E. Metcalf, of Onomea, and Mabel, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Peck, will be joined in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Sidney H. Morgan of St. James' Mission. The wedding will take place in one of the small parlors of the Peck residence and will be witnessed by a few friends of the family and of the groom. Miss Emily Peck will be bridesmaid and Dr. Grace best man. The decorations of the room will be peach blossoms and the bride will wear a white crepe de chene gown simply made but rich. At one o'clock a wedding breakfast will be served on the lanai, the table decorations being pink and white.

The bridal couple will leave for San Francisco on the Kinuau tomorrow. The bride is one of the most popular young ladies in Hilo society, graceful, beautiful and accomplished and has been much admired. Mr. Metcalf is also popular in Hilo as elsewhere and has many warm friends.—Herald.

LYMAN-SMITH.
Eugene Lyman and Miss Clara Smith, sister of Mrs. W. H. C. Campbell, were married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. C. Campbell, Kapoho, by Rev. Father Ulric, yesterday. The wedding was private. The bridesmaid was Miss Lizzie Perkins, and R. A. Lyman, Jr., acted as best man. The bride wore a handsome grey traveling costume and was as pretty as a bride should be.—Herald.

A STRANGE CASE.
A peculiar case of malicious injury to the premises of the Hilo Mercantile Co. happened last Wednesday night. When Jack Easton opened the store and went into Mr. Mason's office early Thursday morning he found that someone had been boring holes into the partition. An inquiry as to the method of entrance to the building showed a broken window glass and an inspection of the outside wall of the building showed that a number of holes had been bored. With what intention it was hard to fathom. The sheriff was notified and the bloodhounds were brought to the store several hours later. A footprint on the window sill and another in the soft dirt gave them the scent and they followed it to a house occupied by a resident. He was asleep when they arrived but they woke him up and refused to proceed further. The dogs were again taken to the store and again they took up the scent and went over the same route again. The man had left the house and gone down Front street but the dogs followed and stopped when they caught up with him. He denied any knowledge of the affair and as it was apparent that there was no attempt to commit a felony there was no arrest made.—Herald.

SERIOUSLY ILL.

W. von Graevemeyer was suddenly stricken with serious illness at his residence while dining Saturday night. A physician was summoned and after an examination the case was pronounced serious. At the request of Mrs. von Graevemeyer a wireless message was sent to Dr. Hoffmann, of Honolulu, requesting his presence.—Herald.

GOVERNOR CARTER COMING.
Governor Carter will arrive in Hilo by the next Kinuau. A letter from the Capitol building to E. E. Richards made this statement, and further said that Superintendent Holloway cannot come to Hilo until in February.—Tribune.

SITE FOR ARMORY.
The government lot mauka of the Fishmarket on Shipman street has been decided upon for the Hilo Armory site. Captain Fetter has forwarded plans and specifications for the building.—Tribune.

NEWS NOTES.
It is believed that the mauka field of the Keauau Land and Planting Co. at Keauau will crop thirty-five tons of cane to the acre.

Buy Gere of the Public Works Department kept his promise to the public in having the new Waiakoa bridge open for traffic on New Year's day.

The Hilo Railway contemplates the immediate extension of their Olua line to twenty-two miles.

The Kohala-Hilo Railway Company will hold a meeting in Honolulu in the near future.

Olau Mill began grinding yesterday. A field of several hundred acres makai of the mill was the first taken off.

Captain Warland has entirely recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia and is able to call on his Hilo friends.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon N. C. Wilifong received a wireless message from Governor Carter as follows: "Resume charge Third Taxation Division. Carter." Mr. Wilifong says that the incidents of the past two weeks have put the office behind with its work, but that he will soon swing things into shape again.

The Enterprise will sail next Tuesday evening or early Wednesday morning and will carry more than 3000 bunches of bananas. Cable announces that the Roescrans will be here February 15 for a banana cargo.

Jared Smith has requested that Hilo be represented at the Farmers' Institute to be held at Honolulu January 30. It is probable that a representative will be selected at the meeting of the Hilo Agricultural Society tomorrow.

Two banana growers in the Hilo district have 1200 bunches ready for this Enterprise.

J. Castle Ridgway is making his regular tour to the other islands as National Bank Examiner.

The engagement of M. de F. Spinola, of the First Bank of Hilo, to Miss Henrietta Carvalho de Mello, is announced. J. E. Higgins, agriculturist for the Hawaii Experiment Station, is in the city and will be present at the meeting of the Hilo Agricultural Society to be held at the rooms of Chas. Fureaux tomorrow.
